Sierra Madre didn't rate any Indian guests this year from the Hopi and Navajo tribes of New Mexico.

This is the second year that the American Friends Service Committee has sponsored this goodwill project. The Indian youngsters, 20 of them this summer, join in with families having children of the same age for a two-week vacation.

Last year three of the visitors stayed in Sierra Madre.

A car dashing along—going east—sporting this legend:

"We're from Oklahoma. And we're proud of it. We're going back to Oklahoma. To home with California and its geraniums."

Streets Superintendent William V. Tayc may not know it, but he is silently cursed out by every resident of the Marlborough Terrace area each time any one of them turns off Mountain Trail onto Churchill Road, or off Churchill Road onto Mountain Trail.

Early in April when Tayc had his hat turned to read Water Superintendent, he put in a water main up Mountain Trail. That was fine, but as a street man, Tayc forgot to clean up all the dirt that was left over. It's still there—in two big humps—and every car in the Terrace is knock-kneed.

Belated credit is due the National Guard detachment here. They turned out 100 per cent to give blood while the Red Cross Mobile Blood Bank Unit was here.

Lorne Pratt often acts as baby sitter for George, his young daughter's pet cockatoo.

He took it to the market where it perched on the cash register. Every time that cash register rang up it went Awwwwk. Awwwk—out of sheer enjoyment, Pratt declared.

NEWS HELPS MERCHANTS IN SALES-TAX RATE SHIFT

Sierra Madre businesses were thrown into a dither last Friday when the new 3 per cent sales tax went into effect, leaving their old tax schedules as obsolete as last year's Easter bunnies.

In an invasion rivaled only by the Normandy beachhead, flocks of bewildered merchants poured into the SIERRA MADRE NEWS office seeking help.

By 4 p.m. in the afternoon, Publisher Peter Ward had the situation well in hand. The NEWS had printed and delivered 200 new complimentary schedules to the business people of Sierra Madre.

The new sales tax rate, an increase of 1/2 per cent, will cost California shoppers an estimated $44,000 during the next 12 months.

Armory Plans Halted Until Company Grows

All future steps toward the building of a National Guard Armory in Sierra Madre must be held in abeyance until such a time as this city's company of Guardsmen reaches a total of 121 men.

Col. Paul C. Byrne, commanding officer of the 223rd Regiment of the National Guard, made this statement last Wednesday during a conversation with Capt. Sanford Ullman, commander of this city's unit.

Colonel Byrne expressed doubt as to whether Sierra Madre can maintain a company of the size required by the Table of Organization of the Heavy Mortar Company.

At present, Sierra Madre's organization has only 60 men, Captain Ullman reported.

"Colonel Byrne assured me that if the company reaches the full required strength, immediate steps would be taken to proceed with the building of an armory in Sierra Madre.

"Failure to obtain sufficient men, however," Captain Ullman said, "may result in the removal of the company from Sierra Madre for placement in a larger population center."

SCOUT DISTRICT GROUP PLANS JULY MEETING

Ways and means of expanding Sierra Madre Boy Scout work will be discussed at the next meeting of the District Committee, Edward A. Davey, district chairman, disclosed this week.

The meeting will be held at the Davey residence, 84 Monterey Lane, Monday, July 18, at 7:30 p.m.

An executive committee of the Pasadena-San Gabriel Valley Council of Boy Scouts of America, the district committee studies problems of local scouting units and coordinates their activities into the large-scale program. The committee is not a legislative body, but works directly through Commissioner of Scouting R. G. Barrett.

Most recent development on the local scouting scene, according to Chairman Davey, is the planning of a new cub pack by St. Rita's Church. The old cub pack still is doing a very fine job, he said.

Mr. Davey is the only man in the area eligible to wear a pin indicating that he is a scouting veteran of 35 years. By 1951, he will become eligible for the "40-year pin."

Amendment Changes Contractor Payments

An amendment eliminating war-time quarterly payments of license fees for electrical and plumbing contractors was recently passed by the City Council and goes into effect this week.

The new law, which repeals City Ordinance No. 444, provides that these payments be made on a yearly basis.

POSTAL RECEIPTS SHOW INCREASE

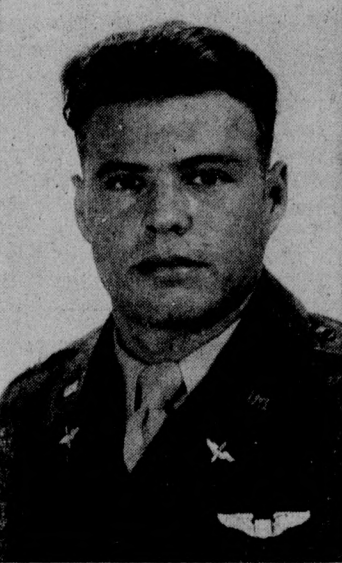

Postal receipts for the quarter ending June 30 amounted to $14,595.92, or an increase of 13 per cent over last year's $12,948.85 for the same period.

During the month of June, the Post Office recorded a total of $4,745.52 in postal receipts. The corresponding month last year showed a total of $4,111.04.

D. E. Sayer Wins Wings

Delbert E. Sayer, son of Mrs. Stephanie G. Sayer, 36 W. Highland, was graduated July 1 with a second lieutenant's commission in the U.S. Air Force Reserve. He was a member of class 49b Advanced Multi-engine Pilot School at Barksdale, Louisiana.

Lieutenant Sayer began his pilot training in June, 1948, at Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, and completed phases I and II of the training there. He was then assigned to the multi-engine school at Barksdale where he received instruction in B-25 aircraft.

George W. Hardy, judge of the Court of Appeals, second circuit, State of Louisiana, was principal speaker at the ceremony in the base theatre, during which the graduates received their wings and were commissioned second lieutenants.

MIDSHIPMAN EAST VISITS NEW YORK

Midshipman R. C. East, 377 North Lima, Sierra Madre, of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, arrived in New York City July 2 and was granted liberty over the Fourth of July week-end while aboard the aircraft carrier USS Leyte.

He is participating in the first of two aircraft carrier cruises in the Atlantic that were planned for this summer. These two-week cruises were scheduled as a part of the summer training program to give Naval Academy midshipmen of the class of 1951 practical shipboard training and an opportunity to "learn by doing" as well as a broader insight into Naval aviation.

They have been integrated with a series of air cruises around the United States and several weeks of indoctrinational training at the Academy.

He embarked aboard the Leyte June 24 along with 360 fellow midshipmen and will return to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., July 11.

According to McElfresh, requests already have been received for fall classes in tailoring, upholstery, and lampshade designing.

"All other suggestions for fall classes are welcome and should be made to either Al Morgan, chairman of the recreation commission, or to myself," McElfresh stated.

NO ONE INJURED IN HOLIDAY CRASH

No one was injured in Sierra Madre's only July 4th traffic accident, the police department gleefully announced yesterday.

In the one accident, which occurred at Grand View and Santa Anita avenue at 4:45 p.m., two cars were damaged to the extent of approximately $125.

Joseph James Ulrich, 6447 W. 86th place, Los Angeles, reports that his car slipped down a few feet when, without realizing it, he let his clutch slip. This caused his automobile to roll into the path of another car driven by Donald Buell White, 2202 Queensbury Road, Pasadena.

White said palm trees growing along the side of the road obstructed his view so that he could not see Ulrich's car until it was too late to stop. His car door and fender were slightly damaged. Ulrich reported damage to his automobile's grill and right headlight.

50 Present at Coordinating Council Meet

A record attendance of about 50 delegates from the various organizations in town met in the Youth Hut to plan activities of the newly organized Coordinating Council.

Eugene Lunsford, president, introduced Henry Nuetzel, City Councilman, who spoke on the problems facing the Council now, particularly the need of a new swimming pool in Sierra Madre.

Mrs. Alice Sedgman gave a talk on the Friendship Club, an organization designed to bring happiness to older people.

Harry Eder of the Santa Anita Gun Club told of the purposes of his group, a member of a national rifle organization, which is set up to train persons interested in gunnery to qualify for national marksmanship records.

The time of the meeting was changed from 7:30 to 8 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month, and will close promptly at 9:30.

McELFRESH GIVES DAY CAMP DATA

Preliminary instructions were issued this week by Recreation Director Sam McElfresh for all children planning to attend Sierra Madre's large-scale Day Camp, which begins in two weeks.

Registration time will be Monday, July 18, at 9 a.m. Mr. McElfresh urged that children arrive promptly so that physical examinations may be completed early in the day. Local doctors are donating their professional time for this service, he said.

Every child should plan to bring his own lunch to the Day Camp, which will be held Monday through Friday, July 18 to August 5, from 9 to 2. Only milk at 7 cents a bottle will be provided, Mr. McElfresh said.

"Children should plan to attend every day," he stated, "to make certain that they get full advantage of the carefully-organized program of outdoor play, instruction in craft work, folk dancing, dramatics, and supervised entertainment."

Mr. McElfresh, as general director of the Day Camp, announced that Mrs. Eleanor Honold will be chairman of the craft program.

In addition, voluntary leadership from the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, YMCA, P-TA and Sierra Madre businessmen has been obtained.

Mr. McElfresh stated that vacancies still exist for persons who are able to do volunteer work during any part of the day.

"Workers who can serve as counselors for children and instructors in craft work are especially needed," he said. "We

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTS CABINET

At the annual organization meeting of the Sierra Madre School Board, held July 1, E. Waldo Ward was re-elected chairman of the Board of Trustees, and Mrs. Edith Dane was elected clerk of the Board.

Ward appointed Howell N. White chairman of the finance committee and Mrs. Dane chairman of the teachers' commission. Mrs. Ward was named chairman of the buildings and grounds committee.

Lions Set July 28 As Installation Date

July 28 has been set as the date for installation of new officers of the Sierra Madre Lions Club, Carl M. Peterson, newly-elected president, reported this week.

At last week's meeting, T. R. Stepp of the East Pasadena Lions was guest. A board of directors' meeting followed the regular Thursday evening gathering.

RESIDENT GREET'S MORNING 'GUEST'

Charles Bratton is not antisocial, but an early morning visitor he had last Thursday definitely was not welcome.

The guest was a 4-foot Black Diamond Rattlesnake.

Bratton, who lives at 775 Skyland Drive, was understandably startled when, at 8:30 a.m., he opened his back door and saw the rattler coiled on his door step.

Mean was the word used by Bratton to describe the snake's conduct as it was being dispatched with a hoe. He said that this particular snake could have been much more dangerous because its rattles had been broken, leaving only a jagged tip with which to make the danger signal.

In warning other residents of the area, Bratton said that he had seen another rattlesnake two weeks before. These two, however, are the only ones I have seen in more than 8 years of living on Skyline Drive.

Money Shortage Forces Halt of Swim Pool Bus

Sierra Madre's effort to help avoid the traffic congestion in the canyon area failed last week when the Canyon Swimming Pool bus discontinued operation because of a lack of funds.

Recreation Director Sam McElfresh said that running the bus as a means of transporting children to the Canyon pool had "proved too expensive a project."

He pointed out that the city budget had not been approved for the summer or fall recreation program and the bus service therefore was forced to halt operation June 30 when existing recreation funds were expended.

Mr. McElfresh blamed the bus service's high cost of operation as compared with the lack of public response as the big reason for the experiment's failure.

He reports that the cost of running the bus averaged $6.60 a day, most of this money being used to pay the Pasadena driver. Gasoline and oil were the only other expenditures, he said. The bus was the Sierra Madre school bus, loaned to the Recreation Department by the School District.

The number of children using the service was very small, he admitted. One day, the bus transported only one child to the Canyon Pool in its two trips to the pool and three trips back.

High point of the nine-day bus service was reached Thursday, June 23, when 43 children were transported from the pool.

According to Dan Rauscher, manager of the Canyon Swimming Pool, there are more people using the pool now than last year at this time. He said that, as of Tuesday of this week, he has recorded a total of 2,791 paid admissions.

Breaking this down into age groupings, he said the pool has recorded 1,426 paid admissions for children of 11 years of age or younger, 1,028 admissions for children of ages 12 through 18, and 337 paid admissions for persons 19 and older.

Rauscher estimated the total money received by the pool probably is considerably lower this year because ticket prices have been lowered.

Most of the children are either walking up the road to the pool or are being brought in automobiles driven by their parents, Rauscher said.

It had been hoped that the bus service would eliminate this additional traffic congestion on the confined streets of the canyon area. Fire Chief Jim Heasley had pointed out the need of keeping canyon streets clear of parked cars so that fire trucks might have free access.

Friday's Program Ends Bible School

Climaxing the two-week "Bethany Boot School for Christian Sailors," a closing program and demonstration is scheduled for tomorrow evening at 7:30 p.m.

Presented entirely by the children, the affair will feature the displaying of craft and hand work accomplished by the "sailors" during the Bible school.

A program, following the naval theme used throughout the school, will include recitation of Bible verses and the singing of newly-learned songs. All the children will take part in this program.

The "Boot" school has been meeting Monday through Friday, 9 to 11:30, for the past two weeks. First session was held June 27.

The Rev. Dewey Mulholland, assistant pastor of Bethany Church, reports that this year's Bible school has been the most successful in 25 years of the summer operation.

An all-time record in attendance was established Friday when 241 sailors answered "muster."

CITY SCHOOL BOARD APPROVES YEAR'S TENTATIVE BUDGET

A tentative budget for 1949-50 was submitted and approved by the Sierra Madre City School Board last Wednesday night at a special meeting of the Board.

According to Charles A. Skutt, superintendent of schools, the proposed budget now goes to the Los Angeles County office for revision and approval.

Mr. Skutt said that two more meetings of the Board are being scheduled relative to the budget. At these times, to be announced later, the Board will again review the budget for possible revision.

The only other business of the Board meeting was the annual cafeteria financial report which revealed a net loss of $20.

This loss, however, is not considered serious, he said, because the cafeteria after all, is a service organization.

Fast Action Promised By Planning Commission On All Lot Splits

Speedy action on lot splits was promised this week by the Planning Commission.

A new procedure would assure this, Chairman Bayard Bigelow said. First, any resident seeking a lot split must file an application and maps with the Commission secretary, Mrs. A. E. Morgan. A committee of the whole meeting will be called and an answer will be given in three days. Official ratification of the decision will be made at the next regular meeting.

In the past criticism has been directed at the Commission, which meets but once a month, because of the long drawn out procedure usually required.

Guardsman Leave Saturday

Equipped with five of their new 4.2 mortars, 50 men of Sierra Madre's National Guard company leave Saturday at 5 p.m. for Camp San Luis Obispo, Capt. Sanford Ullman, commanding officer, announced this week.

Sierra Madre's company, which is the heavy mortar company of the 223rd regiment, 40th division, will take part in the large-scale summer training camp of the National Guard.

According to Captain Ullman, first week of the camp will be devoted to basic training and range firing of the mortar, pistol and bazooka. For the Sierra Madre men, the second week will entail intensive training in the function of a mortar company in protecting a regiment in advance and defense.

"This training," Captain Ullman said, "will feature three field maneuvers, including one night maneuver on defensive tactics in semi-mountainous terrain."

Preceding the company's journey to camp, Sgt. John Wolcott will accompany an advance motor unit of the 223rd regiment to procure quarters and organizational equipment for men of the company.

Captain Ullman said that "in many cases, these men are giving up regular vacations to better prepare themselves to protect the community, state and nation in case of emergency.

"The training they will receive at camp, supplementing the training at regular weekly drill sessions, is intended to prepare them for active duty in case of any contingency."

National Guard units of many of our states, he pointed out, have performed "a tremendous service" during such disasters as floods, fires and earthquakes. He especially praised Guardsmen's rescue efforts in areas damaged by last year's severe winter.

FIRE
FLAMES

The number of people who read this column is becoming more apparent. The entire Fire Department is grateful for this. Through this column we are able to keep the residents acquainted with the activities of the fire fighters as well as offer suggestions for fire prevention.

Idea and ways to prevent fire are graciously accepted from readers. Due to limited facilities and man-power, all of the suggestions offered cannot be fulfilled—but they are attempted. The majority of residents are aware of the value of fire prevention. With these people, we must continue to battle fire hazard and practice fire prevention.

We find in our efforts that there are those who feel that because they have been fortunate enough to evade fire, the continuous reminding and pounding away is not necessary. We can't stop fighting fire. If we do—we will go backwards. We beg people to be alert at all times for those things which cause fire. There are many.

Among the reasons for fire are the match and cigarette. Carelessly thrown about, either of these is a menace. There are so many ways that fire can start. So many of them have been repeated over and over in this column as well as through the leading papers. To those who have been so faithful and know what starts fire, we are thankful and urge them to continue the good work.

Your Fire Department members and their families enjoyed a wonderful picnic on the Fourth. It was a fine gathering and an old-fashioned picnic—one where the tables were decorated with gobs of good food such as only good cooks can prepare. Plenty of comfortable seats were provided for those who rested and games for those who were energetic.

A baseball game between the Udel crew and the Norris crew provided much of the entertainment of the day. Winner of the game has not been decided. There were so many runs across the plate that the scorekeeper called for time. Sore arms are in vogue throughout the town.

Once more we escaped a fire call over the Fourth and to our people, we, the men of the Fire Department, are very grateful. The cooperation about the use of fireworks has been wonderful. Very few have disregarded the wishes of this column.

We are proud to report that there were no reported injuries here over the Fourth. That tells a good story. There is still much opposition to the stand taken by this column in regard to fireworks and their use. It is not the object of the writer to be a joy-killer at any event. It is only that the "proof is in the pudding." And all we have to do to prove the value of eliminating fireworks is to look back over the recent fire records of Sierra Madre, where there has been very little trouble with the use of fireworks, and no fires on the Fourth.

There still is a great fire loss throughout the nation. Here's how you can prevent forest fires: Don't smoke in dry hazardous areas. Break matches in two before discarding them. Stamp out every cigarette butt. Use care in building, tending and extinguishing campfires. Be sure they are out before leaving. Help to keep the fire out.

KIWANIS BOARD
MEETS TONIGHT

Kiwanians have scheduled a Board of Directors' meeting for tonight, July 7. The meeting, which begins at 8 p.m., will be held at the home of Roy Pickett, 189 W. Highland.

Last week's regular Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Kiwanis Club featured the showing of a color and sound film entitled "El Navajo." Capt. E. W. Tranter served as narrator and operator of the projector.

At the gathering, it was announced that an orientation meeting, originally scheduled for July 5, has been postponed until July 12, 8 p.m., at the home of Bob Green, 1119 Valencia Way, Arcadia.

Chamber Schedules
Directors' Meeting

Chamber of Commerce President Al Morgan has scheduled a Board of Directors' meeting for next Thursday evening, 8 p.m., in the Council Chambers.

In reminding citizens of the Chamber's dinner the next night, July 15, Mr. Morgan estimated that more than 100 persons will attend. N. Bradford Trenham, general manager of the California Taxpayers' Association, will speak on the subject, "What's ahead in Taxes?"

The Chamber dinner begins at 7 p.m. at the Woman's Club.

LEWIS NAMED
COMMISSIONER,
BANKERS' ASSN

R. C. Lewis, president of the Bank of Sierra Madre, has been appointed a member of the Commission on Legislation and Taxation of the California Bankers Association, according to an announcement this week by H. V. Alward, president of the Association and vice president, Bank of California N.A., San Francisco.

This commission which is composed of twenty leading bankers from all parts of the state is headed by J.S. Curran, vice president of the Anglo California National Bank of San Francisco.

Lewis has served on several other commissions of the Bankers' Association during past years. For nearly three years, he was a member of the Agricultural Committee of the Association.

Motorcyclist
Hit By Car

While trying out a motorcycle recently with the intention of buying it, James Robert Cole, 361 Mariposa avenue, was struck and knocked down by an automobile.

Although he escaped injury in the accident, the motorcycle's clutch and front wheel were damaged.

Cole reports that he was driving south on Michillinda, when a car having dim lights made a left turn in front of him without the driver making an appropriate signal.

Cole says the driver stopped and offered assistance, but he did not get his name or address.

WISTARIA WEAVERS
HOST FAMILY NIGHT

First Wednesday of every month is Family Night at the Congregational Church, with various organizations serving as hosts. Last night, the Wistaria Weavers acted as hosts for a pot-luck dinner, and provided a program of square dancing.

An exhibition square by the grammar school age group began the program. This group has been sharing the second and fourth Wednesday nights with the adult group.

Second exhibition was presented by the teen-agers, a group which regularly dances on the second and fourth Friday nights.

Two exhibition numbers, "Indian Style" and "Allemande Thar," presented by the adult group, climaxed the evening's program.

During the evening, it was announced that because of increasingly-large attendances at adult dances, that group will begin its evening of square dancing at 8 p.m., with the first half-hour being devoted to instruction. This change will mean discontinuing the grammar school age group for the summer, it was said.

Tomorrow evening's teen-age dance will feature the return of Jack Pattison as regular caller. Pattison has been attending Lloyd Shaw's School for Square-dance Callers, conducted annually at Colorado Springs.

Couple Charged With Disturbing the Peace

Accused of disturbing the peace and using "profane and indecent language" by three complainants, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Kaften, 610 Holly Trail, were arraigned by City Judge John Mead last Tuesday morning.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Kaften pleaded "not guilty" to the charges and demanded a jury trial.

Jury trial has been tentatively scheduled for 10 a. m., July 12. The defendants were released without bond.

During Rev. Clarence Nida's two weeks' absence from Bethany Church, while he is at Fort Ord serving as Chaplain in the U.S.A. Reserve Corps, his pulpit will be filled by Dr. Charles Feinberger of Biola and Dr. Louis T. Talbot, former pastor of the Church of the Open Door, Los Angeles, also a popular radio minister.

Young Gem - Cutters
Do Unusual Work

Want some agate marbles?

Two Sierra Madre youths, engaged in what probably is the most unusual occupation in the area, soon will be able to make all you want. They are Warren R. Jones and Harold Brett, co-proprietors of Sierra Gems, Inc., 105 N. Mountail Trail.

In business since last August, the boys currently are developing three processes to expand their markets. Besides marbles, they manufacture agate spatulas, and "Titania" gems, a new stone of remarkable beauty.

Titania gems, being pushed the hardest right now by the two young businessmen, reportedly is the only gem on the market more brilliant than the diamond. Titania is a synthetic material that is found in nature as the mineral rutile—the golden hair-like crystals in "Thetis hair stone," or as larger crystals which are too impure to be cut.

CHEMICALLY PURE
This material is purified chemically and recrystallized in a high-temperature furnace into a boule of "Titania."

After being sawed into rough pieces, the boules are stuck on sticks with sealing wax. The "sticks" make the small stones easier to handle during polishing. Diamond dust is used for the first grinding process; sapphire dust for the final operation.

The boys have developed two special-type saws and a planer for working with agate, which is harder than the toughest steel. Even with this highly-efficient machinery, however, it takes a half hour to cut a 7-inch length of agate.

DENTISTS USE

Agate spatulas are used by dentists for mixing the special cement used in dental work. According to Jones, the reason agate is necessary for such work is that it does not discolor porcelain and cements as other materials do.

Dental spatulas were formerly manufactured exclusively in Ider-Oberstein, Germany. "We can make them as cheap and much faster with our four men than they can with their largest industry of the city," Jones said, pardonable pride.

Periodically, a shipment of agates arrive from Uruguay, South America. These huge stones are lugged into the cutting room for slicing—thin slices for spatulas, and thicker slices for the marbles.

'ROUGHED' DOWN

In the case of the marbles, agate slices must be cut many more times into small cubes. These are "roughed" down by hand until they resemble hexagon-sided cubes. It is here, the boys admit, that there process is not yet perfected. The "roughing" operation at present, is too tedious and expensive for mass production.

At any rate, the hexagonal cubes next are placed in the ball mill where they are planed down to perfect spheres. After polishing, the finished marbles are ready for sale.

The corporation employs two workmen, John Grijalva and Tony Barala, and two women polishers, Joan Einsel and Ruth Ryan. The women are able to grind an average of 50 spatulas each day.

'CHUCK' SHIPPEY RECEIVES DEGREE

Charles S. ("Chuck") Shippey, son of Lee Shippey, noted author and lecturer, was recently graduated from Santa Barbara College of the University of California with an A. B. degree in Business Administration.

Shippey, who lives at 297 Toyon Road, was one of 522 seniors to receive diplomas from President Robert G. Sprout during the commencement rites.

He is visiting San Francisco for a few days, his father announced.

Magazine Describes Local Man's Hobby

A full-page picture spread in the July issue of Sunset Magazine gave recognition to Merritt M. Williams' unusual hobby.

Williams, who lives at 310 E. Highland, has been collecting models of historic ships for the past 30 years. To make it even harder, each ship is enclosed in a glass bottle.

The magazine display shows most of the ships which adorn the walls of Williams' collection room. A nautical theme is carried out in all the decorations and fixtures of the room.

City Resident Flies To San Francisco

Mrs. Mary Alice Switzer, 571 Sturtevant Drive, made a plane trip to San Francisco recently on business.

She reports that while there, she was entertained by her cousin, Brig. General Harold Nichols of the U.S. Army.

Following a dinner at the San Francisco Yacht Club, she and the General attended a presentation of "Cavalgatta," which just recently finished a run at the Biltmore in Los Angeles.

Adult Center Has Classes

Monrovia Adult Center is offering women of the area two courses in costume designing to be taught by widely-known manufacturing designer and fashion writer. First class begins tomorrow, July 8.

Mrs. Ethel Hillman, who was fashion editor for a Los Angeles newspaper during the war under the pen name of Marilyn Pembroke, has been retained by the Center to teach both courses.

Until recently, Mrs. Hillman was connected with a blouse manufacturing firm, the entire production phase being governed by her exclusive patented design. Hollywood stars for whom she has designed clothes are Joan Crawford, Dolores Del Rio, and Rita Hayworth.

The two classes to be held at Monrovia Adult Center will be on Fridays. Hours are from 9 to 12 noon, and 7 to 10 p.m.

City Enters Rose Parade

Sierra Madre is the third city to file entry in the 1950 Tournament of Roses Parade. Mayor J. Milton Steinberger filed this city's application with Tournament officials Monday morning.

YEARS OF WORK END IN PASSAGE OF BANKING ACT

California's new Bank Act, signed last week by Governor Warren, is the culmination of several years' work by a special committee of the California Bankers' Association, R. C. Lewis, president of The Bank of Sierra Madre, announced.

Mr. Lewis, who this week was appointed to the Commission of Legislation and Taxation of the Association, said that the Association's work resulted in the revised act we now have.

Under the leadership of Ben C. Corlett, vice-president of American Trust and former superintendent of the Banks of California, the committee met many times and sought bankers' suggestions on how best to strengthen the act.

The new act, known as Assembly Bill 994, will create a change in loan limits, the largest reduction occurring in Real Estate Loans. The act will also affect bank investments, particularly savings banks, Mr. Lewis said.

Local Boys Visit Islands

Two Sierra Madreans, Blodgett Graff, 173 San Gabriel Court, and George E. Hall, 325 Camillo boulevard, celebrated the Fourth of July in Honolulu while on the All Naval Reserve cruise to the Hawaiian Islands.

The Navy provided them with a tour of the island and a big hula show at the Recreation Center at Pearl Harbor. All ships were in full dress for the holiday, and Honolulu celebrated Independence Day like any other American city.

The Naval Reservists from Sierra Madre left Long Beach, California with 1000 other Reservists on June 25 aboard three destroyers and will return on July 14. While in Honolulu, the Reservists have been visiting the famous beach of Waikiki, Royal Hawaiian Hotel, Iolani Palace, the museums, gardens, gardens, and beautiful countryside.

All-Time 'Dry' Record

A new all-time "dry" record of five consecutive subnormal rainfall years was chalked up this week in Southern California when the 1948-49 season ends.

Franklin Thomas, water authority and chairman of the state's Colorado River Board, said this is the first time in 180 years of California rainfall statistics that drought conditions have extended over a five year period.

The previous record was the four year series of 1928, 1929, 1930 and 1931.

POLICE BLOTTER

A rifle, a revolver and a bullet belt were only a child's playthings. Anyway, Hi Embree investigated. —A 'spite fence' bred the expected feud. —A little girl (who knew her way home) was returned after she reported herself lost. —Motorcycle and car meet. Damaged cycle. —Broken church skylight. —A leaking five-gallon gasoline can caused some little anxiety for a spell. Cops and street men soon washed away the danger. —Auto fire.

Dead animal in the storm drain. Discovered by the neighborhood children. —"Woman screaming." A prowler, a lawn sprinkler left on, a loud party, dog bite, shooting in the mountains, a weaving auto, loud music, Petty Theft, hit and run, property damage only. —S'Funny—Malicious mischief. —Prowlers—Death investigation. —another 4:15. (Disturbance of the Peace.)—Man down. Injured. When she parked her car at the curb, there were two boys in it. When she came from the store, there were NOT two boys. They were found later some distance away.

Many reports of illegal dumping of rubbish. Thoughtless dumpers use private property to get rid of their trash, etc.

"Mac" McNeely of the Street Department was well rewarded when a nice lady accepted her purse from him. He found it in their street.

Happened to be with one of the boys when he was called to a family disturbance. All was quiet on arrival. The young wife complained that they had quarreled and he had called her names that were shocking. Hubby got in his three cents' worth by telling the officer that he "Otta hear what she called me."

"She didn't say that I was a prize pig." Having been through the mill, the officer said, "that's trivial; my wife calls me those things often. Most of the time she's not far from the truth, and you oughta hear what I call her sometimes. When it's all over, it's a lot of fun makin' up."

A fellow whose car ran hot was forced to stop and wait awhile as it cooled off. The neighbors thought he looked suspicious. —Calls about fireworks coming in. Not many, a few. —Kids reported on the roof of the Bath House at the swimming pool. They should be warned that a group recently caught in there were severely lectured by the local Judge. —Barking dog. —Several skunks are too many, ask Chunn and Mackie to do somethin' about it. —Did they?

Shades of Yesteryear

July 9, 1909.

Of all the social events in the history of Sierra Madre few have surpassed the opening of the Woman's Club House last Friday evening in importance and brilliance. Guests to the number of nearly 200 assembled for the occasion and the enjoyment afforded was on a par with the importance of the event in the community.

Men wishing or willing to assist in the organization of a volunteer fire department are requested to meet at the City Hall next Tuesday evening, July 13 (1909), at 7:30. A meeting has been called for the purpose by the Board of Trade committee having the matter in charge. It is hoped that the number present and the interest in the project will warrant the forming of a permanent organization at that time. It is probable that officers will be elected and rules adopted for the government of the department.

25 YEARS AGO

July 11, 1924.

Sierra Madre Mountain House is the name of Sierra Madre's newest place of rest, recreation and refreshment. It was opened with a splendid dinner Tuesday night at 439 N. Baldwin.

A Sierra Madre pilgrimage to the Hollywood Bowl will be made under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce on Friday evening, July 18. This will be an unusual opportunity to hear the great symphony orchestra in that matchless setting and under the baton of the world-famed conductor, Alfred Hertz.

15 YEARS AGO

July 6, 1934.

Pointing to the most prosperous summer season here since boom days, vacationists from the beach towns and the metropolitan area poured into Sierra Madre canyon in unprecedented numbers on the Fourth of July holiday. Canyon realtors report they had a hard time filling all the orders for summer cottages and the great majority of available cabins and apartments are already occupied by early visitors.

The Baer-Carnera championship fight pictures will be shown this evening and Saturday as an added feature to the regular program of Gillette's Arcadia Theater.

'The Dove' Now Playing At Playhouse

To south of the border, the peppery Dolores and Willard Mack's drama, The Dove, moves Pasadena Playhouse for the second footlight offering in the current 15th annual Midsummer Drama Festival, July 5 to 10th.

Fiery romance and action sparkle the story of tiny Dolores, Don Jose, Tostados, patron of the Mexican town, and Johnny Powell, the young man from across the border.
The action veers between the Purple Pigeon Cafe and Bray-field's Gambling House as a young pair battle the dictatorial edicts of Don Jose.

David Belasco first produced
"The Dove", and with Judith Anderson and Holbrook Blinn it was a national sensation in the early 20's. Inclusion of the Beloasco name brings another bright Western light in the current Festival's list of California playwrights. Previous Pasadena summer series have included
Beloasco's play creations.

Light Opera Assn. Signs All-Star Cast For 'Desert Song'

An all-star cast for The Light Opera Association of San Gabriel Valley's production of "The Desert Song" at the Mission Playhouse in San Gabriel was announced today by President Dr. Ralph F. Erlingheuser.
The finest voices of the valley have been obtained in addition to stars of previous productions, he said.

Leading directors of both book and music are now perfecting the show for presentation July 20, 22, 23, and 24. The addition of Monroe Manning as general director was revealed today by Gene Singer, first vice-president and director of production. Assisting Mr. Manning is Michael Stevens and Byron Kelley.

Loren Powell is directing music with Amelio Colantoni in charge of stage and lighting.
Returning to the cast as Margot is Dorothy Singer. She is well remembered for her portrayal of "The Merry Widow."
Hal Cleveland and Frances Mendelsohn, who gained recognition for their comedy in "Naughty Marietta," are again featured. Phil Harvey plays
Captain Paul Fontain, and Pat
Owen, whose characterization of the Governor in "Naughty Marietta" gained him the notice of the critics, will portray General Birabeau.

Felix Uribe, 1948 Atwater Kent winner, is carrying the dual role of "The Red Shadow" and Pierre. One of the henchmen of "The Red Shadow," Sid El Kar, is being played by Frank Hedricks of Temple City.

Car Undamaged

Sierra Madre's Fire Department was called to the scene of an automobile fire last Friday, but the car owner had successfully beat it out the very small blaze almost immediately.

V. T. Lee, 459 Central, Monrovia, the owner, reports that his automobile was not damaged. The fire occurred in front of 240 E. Sierra Madre boulevard.

The coastal portion of this week's tour has frequently been compared with scenes along the famed Italian Riviera. Indeed, it is one of California's most spectacular motor trips with each bend on the serpentine highway unfolding new variations of picturesque settings. The piece de resistance is the journey within the Carmel-Monterey area.

1. On a bluff overlooking Morro Bay stands the famous Morro Rock (center photo), an immense volcanic hill that rises 576 feet above a shallow lagoon impounded by sand dunes. It is sometimes referred to as the "Gibraltar of the Pacific."

2. William Randolph Hearst's "Castle" looms high above the village of San Simeon. The estate has its own zoo, airfield and art galleries in addition to shiploads of imported castle stones.

3. Big Sur Pfeiffer State Park (lower photo) is an excellent recreational area and is the southernmost point in the State where a preponderance of Coast Redwoods grow.

4. Along the spectacular 17-Mile Drive around the Monterey Peninsula, one may see such breathtaking scenes as the famed windward tree at Cypress Point (top photo), the old Point Pinos lighthouse, the famed Pebble Beach Golf Course, the magnificent views from Pacific Grove, Midway Point, Point Joe, Bird Rock and Point Lobos, the unique white ghost tree at Midway Point and the luxurious shore estates between Cypress Point and Pebble Beach.

5. The artist colony at Carmel prohibits house numbers, city-owned utility companies, mail deliveries and forbids cutting trees without police permission. This famed community is one of the nation's most picturesque villages.

6. A satisfactory way to see some of Monterey's many attractions is to follow the street markings that direct one to such historically important places as the Old Customs House, Colton Hall, the first theatre in the State, Larkin House, the former home of Robert Louis Stevenson and Fishermen's Wharf. Previous to 1849, Monterey was the most important city in California. It was the State's first capital.

MUSEUM TO RUN FILMS

An excellent and outstanding series of weekly film programs for the summer months at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park, starting tomorrow, July 8, at 8 p.m., is announced by James H. Breasted, Jr., director of the institution.

Each Friday evening program will be repeated in the afternoon of the Sunday following during the period of the series which ends on Sunday, August 28. The Sunday afternoon film entertainment replaces the chamber music concerts for July and August.

"Washington, Shrine of American Patriotism," will be the theme of the opening program in the film series. One is taken on a tour of the city to view all of the historic and scenic spots. This is followed by a special visit to the Capitol Building, the White House, Smithsonian Institute and the National Gallery.

The repeat showing of films on Sunday afternoons will start at 3 p.m., except the first one on July 10 which will begin at 1:30 p.m., so as not to conflict with the lecture on the current Leonardo da Vinci art exhibition at 3 p.m.

ARTIST SEES SOUTH

Bernard Wynne, local artist, returned Sunday from three weeks' vacation in New Orleans and has enrolled in a summer art course under Norman Rockwell, at Otis Institute in Los Angeles.

On his trip he was accompanied by his niece, Catherine Mary Wynne, daughter of Dr. Thomas Wynne of Sierra Madre. She visited at the home of her grandparents.

Streetcar Named Diner

Mrs. Hazel George and daughter, Janice, former Sierra Madreans, now of Monrovia, opened a new restaurant last Friday on Lemon Street in Monrovia.

It is fashioned from a former streetcar and is called "George's Diner."

HEALTH OFFICE TELLS FLY CRISIS

Flies carry disease and help spread summertime epidemics on this warning note Southern California health officials and civic organizations have launched the most intensive fly-control drive in history.

This public health campaign has the active support of PTA groups, Women's Clubs, local health departments and nearly 1200 Boy Scout troops. Object of the drive is to alert every citizen to the deadly danger of the common housefly and explain the latest scientific methods and DDT sprays for combating it.

Health officials warn that flies carry the germs of nearly 20 dread, and often fatal, diseases. Further warning comes from weathermen who predict that expected heat waves will breed flies in record swarms.

One effective way to stop flies is demonstrated by Boy Scout Phillip Bauer, typical of thousands of Southland Scouts who have volunteered to instruct their parents and neighbors in modern fly-control steps. Proper spraying with DDT will keep homes and grounds relatively free from flies.

In addition to spraying such favorite fly-breeding places as garbage cans, porches, patios, screens, steps and railings and doorways should also be sprayed, as well as all interior rooms and surfaces where flies rest or walk.

SUN TIME IS DANGEROUS

Every summer millions of Americans hasten to the beach and pools for happy hours of sun and fun.

This is the time for caution. What you may gain from sunbathing must be balanced against the harm possible from overexposure. Too much sunbathing may put a strain on the kidneys, result in toxemia or shock, or even lead to skin cancer. For every person who buys a sunburn preventative, there are 50 persons who buy a remedy to treat sunburn.

How long can you stay out in the sun? The people of the tropical countries are protected from the sun by their dark skin coloring, but the white race is not so fortunate. If you are light-complexioned, take especial care. "Condition" your skin by very short periods of exposure at first, until a protective tan is established. Some people never tan.

When you begin to turn pink, then is the time to get out of the sun. A few more minutes may cause a blister-producing burn. Don't forget that ultraviolet rays are present even when the sky is cloudy.

Use an effective suntan lotion to protect your skin, and be sure to re-apply it to replace loss from evaporation or rubbing-off.

By using care in exposing your body to the sun, you will help avoid painful sunburn and shock. In case of serious sunburn, call your Physician. Your Rexall Druggist will fill his prescription with fresh ingredients; double-checking for accuracy. Remember, your Rexall Drug Store is completely stocked with excellent sunburn preventives to help make your summer vacation pleasant and safe.
